

Invite you to a conversation with Public and Private Sector Leaders in the Labor, Business, Building, Renewable Energy and Government Sectors about:

SUSTAINABLE JOBS FOR FRESNO

An Evening Discussion On Near-Term Opportunities and Challenges

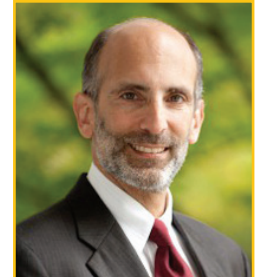

Thursday, January 21, 2016
from 5 - 7 PM

Fresno State University
(Smittcamp Alumni House)

Join the Council of Infill Builders, Leadership For Jobs And A New Economy and Sierra Business Council for an evening reception and discussion on economic and job opportunities presented by state and regional sustainability policies and funding.

the agenda

- 4:30-5:00: Registration
- 5:00-5:30: Brief Welcome with Hors d'oeuvres and Drinks
- 5:30-5:45: Keynote: Ken Alex, Senior Adviser to Governor Brown and Director of the Governor's Office of Planning and Research: "Future of State Climate Policies"
- 5:45-6:45: Panel Discussion and Q&A
- 6:45-7:00: Next Steps and Conclusion

the panelists

- Panel discussion moderated by Terry Watt:
- Steve Frisch, Executive Director, Sierra Business Council
 - Joseph Oldham, Director, CALSTART San Joaquin Valley Clean Transportation Center
 - Curt Johansen, President, Council of Infill Builders

Event Fee $20

Pay via the Council website:
CouncilofInfillBuilders.org

the sponsors

