

The Council of Infill Builders and Los Angeles City Councilmember Jose Huizar invite you to a conversation and report release on:

L.A. PARKING POLICY REFORM

A Conference on Options for Transit-Oriented Development

Tuesday, May 16, 2017
from 10:30am - 2:30 pm

Bradley Tower Room
L.A. City Hall

Join the Council of Infill Builders for an interactive conference to discuss parking policy solutions for transit-oriented development in Los Angeles. The conference will launch a new report on parking reform.

10:00-10:30: Registration
10:30-10:45: Welcome: Mott Smith, Council of Infill Builders & Kevin Ocubillo, Office of Councilmember Jose Huizar

10:45-11:15: Keynote: Seleta Reynolds, General Manager, City of Los Angeles Department of Transportation

11:15-11:35: "Wasted Spaces" report release presentation 11:35-11:50: Parking Case Study: Lauren Mattern, Nelson\Nygaard 11:50-1:00: Lunch (provided) and small group discussions: parking policy reform options
1:00-2:30 Panel discussion on parking policy reform options

- Claire Bowin, City Planner, City of Los Angeles
- Kirsten Pawling, Natural Resources Defense Council
- Ann Sewill, California Community Foundation
- Mott Smith, Civic Enterprise/Council of Infill Builders

Register Today!

Tickets Available At
infill-council.org

the agenda

the panelists

the sponsors

AIA Los Angeles
A Chapter of the American Institute of Architects